PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE!

Well I hope everyone is getting ready for the holidays coming up. CCF will celebrate their Christmas party at the Senior Center this year. A date will be settled upon at the November meeting. Prior to this Xmas event, you will get a “telephone” reminder of date and time plus it will be posted at the field.

This year, besides the club providing the usual 6 ft. sandwich, a pot luck meal and desert will be the main feature. Attending members and their wives or girlfriends or friends can bring their favorite snacks, drinks, main dish or desert, the choice is yours. Yes, there will be our usual year end raffle. Again, at the November meeting we’ll decide on date and time. Also at the November meeting we’ll announce the nominees for club officers for next year.

If no position is contended, then they will be approved at the meeting as we have done many times in the past. Mark your calendar, see you then. This will be my last Presidents message, I wish all the new officers success plus the new “Newsletter/Editor Ed Bialon. Please give this new staff your support.

Thanks again for supporting me in my two years as your President.
See you at the field next year,
Jesse

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Well my friends, it is that time of the year again....the Changing of the Guard, the rite of spring. All that is happening to the CCF and clubs everywhere as we elect new officers to carry the club forward. The wholesale replacement of the officer's is a little scary but also exciting. We have so much new blood coming into the pilots seat.

Before going further however, the strongest "thanks for everything" goes out to Jesse Paz, the club president for the last 2 years. Jesse's enthusiasm, hard work and effort brought a welcome energy to the club and to the many improvements and accomplishments the club has made under his watch. Kudo's Jesse, we will miss your guidance.

Then as I have stated before there is me giving up the reigns (again) to The Plane Truth newsletter which is now being placed in the capable hands of Ed Bialon

Preparing the newsletter monthly has been a labor of love....and hate, especially with deadlines, etc., yet overall I was happy to do my part for the overall benefit of the club.

Our club is lucky. We have way more members who think more about others than themselves. In my view, that's a good thing.

In closing, as Jesse always says.....

See you at the field!

Roland
